

Import and Export of Tasks

Tasks are directly imported and exported from the task overview. Files are exported in the same format as they were imported.

A task can include any number of files in the import and a task can include all different supported file formats in a mixture.

Plug-ins for post processing can manipulate the imported data. One favorite example is the openTMS TermTagger attached to translate5 by the TermTagger plug-in.