

Configuration

translate5 is extensively configurable by system administrators: GUI and others things alike.

Currently we are working on bringing the configuration into the GUI, till then the configuration must be still set manually in the installation.ini or Zf_configuration.