

Custom translate5 skin / look & feel translate5 has extensive mechanisms to support a custom look & feel for the application.

Yet, support for these mechanisms is restricted to language service providers, that are a member of the translate5 consortium and to industry end clients.

If you are interested in a custom look and feel for translate5, please get in touch with translate5s developers.