

Internal tags: Handling in translate5

Internal tags are markup within a to be translated segment, that protects something for the translation process.

In translate5 this can be for example

- Code markuip from native source formats
- whitespace other than a single normal space
- Some variables or text, that should be protected
- MQM QA marks

List of relevant sub-pages

- Definition of Translate5 internal Tags